Maternal Newborn Lunch and Learn

Bring a brown bag and check out these hot topics
All events located in the College of Nursing, Room 138
No need to RSVP, all are welcome!

Interdisciplinary Care in OB- Midwifery
A panel of midwives will discuss midwifery care, midwifery in Oklahoma, and the process of becoming a midwife.
   Thursday, February 5, 12:15 PM- 1 PM

Interdisciplinary Care in OB- Doula Panel
A panel of doulas will discuss the role of the doula, doula training, and doula certification.
   Thursday, February 12, 12:15 PM- 1 PM

Interdisciplinary Care in OB- Lactation Consultants
Tena Fry, MS, APRN, CNE, IBCLC, will discuss the role of the lactation consultant and the process to become a lactation consultant.
   Thursday, February 26, 12:15 PM- 1 PM

Cord Blood Banking
Linda Dixon, RN, will discuss the Oklahoma Blood Institute’s Cord Blood Bank.
   Thursday, March 26, 12:15- 1 PM

NICU Nurses Panel
A panel of neonatal intensive care nurses will discuss the NICU environment, caring for fragile neonates, and working in the NICU.
   Thursday, April 2, 12:15 PM- 1 PM

Human Milk Banking
Keri Hale, RD, IBCLC, director of the Oklahoma Mothers’ Milk Bank, will discuss human milk banking in Oklahoma.
   Thursday, April 9, 12:15- 1 PM

Placenta Encapsulation
Taryn Goodwin, placenta encapsulation specialist, will discuss the process of placenta encapsulation.
   Thursday, April 23, 12:15- 1 PM